Abt. 4:30 Tues we found one that was real close to what we wanted. So we decided to talk abt it that night & see what another agent had to show Wed. morning. Bey Wed. morning we had all but decided on the house at 130 Rollingreen Rd. But we had the appointment for Wed morning so we went ahead. ~~He showed~~ us 3 houses that weren't even close then he drove up to one right across the street from the one we decided on. We walked in and immediately liked the house almost as well as the one at 130. Well, you talk about being confused. We were. It was hard to choose between the 2 houses. So — . We went back to the office with the agent and told him we were undecided abt the two. Anyway we wound up getting the keys to both houses and went back by ourselves and just went back and forth across the street comparing the two until we eliminated one. We made an offer on the first
