

The first Sunday we were in Greenville (a week ago today) we visited the Edwards Road Baptist Church for church & Sunday School and then Sunday night we moved our letters. It is a new church (about 3 yrs old) and is small. We think we will enjoy a small church again. The class Brownie visited had a ~~was~~ class meeting on Tues. night and also had a covered dish supper and asked the husbands. They invited us and we went to that. So we have already had a get-to-gether of our new neighbors and our age group in the church.
