a feather. He isn't my superintendent and I haven't been connected with him in any way
except to speak to
him through the days.
He took me by his
house at noon and got the box and brought me on home. He told me he and his wife
didn't have any children and wanted to give some of the youngest children around the mill something.
Some one told us today that his wife had a mis-carriage on Christmas day last year. He happens
