

Monday Nite
Well, here I am
again. The boys got off this morning and we got an invitation
out to dinner and we rushed around here
and I forgot to mail
this letter.

We spent the day
with Alton Heatcock
and his family. You know Dad, the fellow
that showed us the
eat-fish when we were out at the Hines' that
day. Now Lynn sure
did have a good time
with his two kids too.
