

Pop, Geo. and I went to a ball game and saw Washington beat the Yankees. It was a swell game and enjoyed it very much. I never see a baseball game without remembering the time when we lived in North Claburn and were at a ball game and a airplane came over and while you were watching it a foul ball knocked a semi-circle out of the brim of your sailor straw hat. That was a long time ago.