The moonlight on the water & the approach to the City is just wonderful. They say we were lucky on our trip the water <sup>was</sup> so calm we hardly knew we were moving. There were about 500 people aboard & most of them were Americans. We spent one night on the boat going over & one night coming back. We got up early so we would be sure to see all there was as we approached Havana. We passed ~~more~~ <sup>so</sup> ~~eastly~~
