

which we visited ⁽³⁾

on some of our tours.

Before our ship docked there were several native men in the water to dive for coins tossed them which they seldom miss.

after disembarking we were carried to our hotel which was very old but comfortable we enjoyed the custom of sitting in the lobby & rocking & talking with other people that were from every where.

Mrs. J. L. Peterson
Sp.