

HOTEL CARAVELLE
SAIGON

29 MARCH '68
FRI - NIGHT

DEAREST BROWNIE + JIM:

WELL, HERE I AM, BUT BY THE TIME you are reading this I will either be in Manila or Hong Kong. So THERE is no need or use to worry now. No need anyway. Saigon is as safe or safer than some of the places I went through in Northern Pakistan.

Your letter was waiting for me in Bangkok along with one from Lynn. It sure was good to read two letters from someone back in civilization!

It hasn't been all that bad. I really & truly enjoyed my trip through Pakistan. I arrived in Karachi about 5:00 AM on Tues 19 March. Visited 7 Mills Tues, Wed, & Thurs. Left Karachi Friday morning at 7:00 AM - flew to ~~Pakistan~~ MULTAN - Drove 3 hours to Beewala - visited the mill and spent the night in an old Civil Rest house which the mill now uses as a guest house. Saturday worked at the mill some more and drove about 4 HRS to Lahore. The driver was ~~an~~ a mill driver and we were in a Chev. Impala, but the driver was the best "chicken" driver in the world. He won them all and I mean there was plenty