So - at 3:30 AM I left Karachi for Bangkok. Arrived in Bangkok about 8:30, went to American Trading office and then had lunch with MR. Poonwong.
Maybe you remember he visited Greenwill a year ago last Nov.
Made a call in the afternoon and then had about a 2 1/2 hour visit with MR. + MRS. Jack Mahaffey - Southern Baptist Missionaries.
Tell you about this visit when I get home.

Left Bangkok at 9:00 AM this morning and arrived in Saigon at noon. Visited the mill this afternoon that is just about finished erecting. Two rockets had hit the mill (after we got our erector out but they exploded between the roof and false ceiling so did very little damage.
Will visit another mill in the morning and go back to Donifater again tomorrow.

So you see I just haven't had time to write except the Post Card. I hope we don't visit mills Sunday so I can catch up on my reports. It is quite interesting to see things first hand here but there is so much to tell I'll just wait and tell at instead of writing.
I was in the Restaurant on top of the Hotel at Curfew time and I mean the streets really emptied.

I love you
