

lunch today on the Kowloon side. I'll take my camera and maybe get some more pictures. After dinner last night we took the Peak Train to the top of the Mt. on the Island and the lights and harbor were magnificent. There are so many large ships in the harbor. I want to get up there today to get some pictures. Don't know whether I will or not.

I thought I had been letting either you or the office know where I was pretty well, but guess I should have called the office more. Then too, each letter I get from you was written so far back down my itinerary that by the time I read your letters I guess you have caught up with me somewhat.

I have gone hard and fast on the whole trip but have enjoyed every minute of it. Even though I haven't booked any business, it has been a good trip from a business standpoint. I have been involved in two Chinese dinners and I don't know whether I can get through anymore or not. I understand they really love them in Taiwan.
